God's Miracle Power in Lobengula, Zimbabwe

Dear friends,

Greetings in the name of the Lord Jesus!

Throughout 2006, we will continue reaching the multitudes for Jesus. The crusade report featured in this newsletter is from October 2005. As you read this inspiring and exciting report, you will understand that we are indeed living in harvest time!

Lobengula, named after the famous warrior king of the Ndebele, is a township outside Bulawayo, which is the second largest city of Zimbabwe. This was the first time we were in this township. In fact, this was the first large Gospel crusade ever held in Lobengula.

Our team worked very hard with the local churches running our month-long pre-crusade program, known as Mobile Bible School. This created great excitement and anticipation of what the Lord would do during the crusade. The crusade started with a large first-night crowd gathered to hear the Gospel.

The weather was warm, but the change from the dry to the rainy season was in the air; it was not calm. Strong winds blew every day, whirling the dust and sand into the air, and even ripped up one of our prayer tents. Since sand constantly blew into our hair and faces, I preached wearing a 'do-rag' on my head. I explain this lest you are shocked by the photos and begin to wonder whether I have gone into the Christian rap music ministry!

The crowds grew every evening and huge multitudes came out to hear the Gospel. Nightly, we witnessed huge masses of people standing and attentively listening to the Gospel message. There was a deep conviction of sin, and we saw these multitudes of people pray the sinner's prayer and receive Jesus.

God was doing a deep work that was touching the whole town; almost every person living there came to the crusade at least once. We have seen this time and time again; when God moves whole cities, churches explode with growth, crime rates go down, and the local authorities want us to come back and hold another crusade!

The entire crusade was punctuated with amazing healings and miracles, too many to number. People were seeing that Jesus is alive. There were paralyzed and lame people, brought in wheelchairs and pushcarts, who got up and walked. People were throwing away their crutches and walking. There were blind people who began to see and deaf-mutes who began hearing and speaking for the first time in their lives.

Go Ye into all the World and Preach the

This happened every night. It was as if we were living in the very pages of the Book of Acts. It was wonderful, and it seemed that we were riding in a wave of God's presence and glory!

On the third night of the crusade, as I preached from Isaiah 53 about the suffering of our Lord Jesus upon Calvary's Cross, the Lord reached out His Hand in an amazing way.

Multitudes of people received Jesus, and after the prayer for salvation and follow-up procedures I prepared to pray for the sick. Hundreds were pushing their way to the front. I saw people being brought to the front pushed on wheelchairs. I watched as one

HEALING TESTIMONIES!

Dudzile Mpofu, 21, was mute since birth and had never uttered a sound her whole life. Jesus healed her, and now she can speak!

Lingiwe Mathafena, 32, had a large tumor on her side for 18 months. Jesus healed her, and the tumor disappeared!

Nkazimula Ncube, 7, was born mute and had never spoken. Jesus healed him, and now he can speak!

Mthuusi Mathanda, 34, was paralyzed in one arm and one leg. She could not walk nor could she use her arm in any way. Jesus healed her, and now she can run; the arm is perfectly well!

Sheila Tshuma, 54, was crippled for 16 years and could not walk. Jesus healed her, and now she can walk and run!

Victoria Nyoni, 65, had a stroke that left her unable to walk or to speak. Jesus healed her, and now she can walk and speak!

Tame Tshuma, 4, was blind. His father carried him to the crusade where Jesus healed him!

Sethykele Nkomo, 5, was totally deaf since he was 2 years old. Jesus healed him, and now he can hear!

paralyzed man was brought as he lay flat on a small open trailer, complete with a South African license plate.

The magnitude of human suffering before my eyes was staggering. I felt so small. It was breaking my heart, and the weight of the situation sent me to my knees. I turned my back to the crowd and turned my face to our Lord Jesus and said, "Lord I feel so helpless; these people need your presence."

I heard the soft sweet voice of the Son of God which I have heard so many times say, "I live in you, and I am Mighty. People such as these are the reason that I baptized you with my Holy Ghost

A great measure of boldness filled my soul, and the power and the faith of the Lord came upon me. I turned and knelt before the huge crowd and began to pray and take authority over Satan. The Fire of the Lord fell and, as it did, about 16 deaf people received their hearing. Then the man brought on the small trailer suddenly stood up and began to walk. The crowd praised God and shouted for joy.

began to walk. By this time, the crowd was in an absolute frenzy; shouting and praising Jesus and singing the famous African song, "He is a miracle working God." The roar of the crowd was deafening. Blind people began to see, and formerly crippled people were walking everywhere. Our ushers were losing control of the crowd because of this 'holy chaos,' or as one of my friends in India used to call it, "uncontrolled revival."

The entire football field was packed with people singing and shouting; our Lord Jesus was being praised. He was no longer just a Heavenly figure; He was now walking in our midst on that dusty field in Lobengula just like He walked on the shores of Galilee 2000 years ago!

It was an amazing evening of miracles, testimonies, and praises to God! Back in my hotel room that night, I was overcome and wept. My mind was trying to imagine the rejoicing that must have taken place around the Throne of God that night. God, looking from Heaven at all those precious people within that countless multitude reaching out to Him, worshipping unabashedly, being saved, healed, and set free. Oh, how the beautiful people of Africa praised our Lord Jesus that night, and God responded to them by sending down Holy Ghost Fire!

ning; multitudes received the Lord Jesus and the Word confirmed with signs following. Some evenings there were so many healing testimonies that we could not get through all of them.

The Crusade ended with thousands of people receiving the Baptism with the Holy Ghost and with Fire. It was a week filled with the Glory of God!

Thank you for your love, prayers, and support. We have several crusades and Schools of Ministry scheduled for 2006, and we need your help. This is harvest time! In Joel 3:13 the prophet Joel said, "Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe." Please do the best you can to support us during this time of harvest. Multitudes are still waiting to hear the Gospel!
