Nkulumane, Zimbabwe

Dear friends,

Greetings in the name of the Lord Jesus!

Nkulumane is a large township outside Bulawayo, Zimbabwe. We held a crusade in Nkulumane six or seven years ago. At that time, Nkulumane was known for criminal gangs of armed men who raped, robbed, and terrorized the townspeople, and there were also a number of large satanic cults. The members of these cults wore gowns with demonic symbols and held satanic rituals among other things.

The power of God shook the town, and many of the gangsters and criminals, including their leaders, received the Lord Jesus. In addition to this, many from the cults had also received Jesus. On the last night of the crusade, we burned a large collection of weapons and satanic paraphernalia that people discarded when they received Christ. After the crusade, we received reports from the local pastors telling us that the gangs and cults had largely disappeared and that Nkulumane was now a safe and peaceful town! This is what the Gospel of Jesus can do!

When our team arrived in Nkulumane this past October to launch our Mobile Bible School in preparation for the crusade, they saw that after all these years it was still a safe and peaceful town. All glory to Jesus!

The Lord began to move among the people on the first night. The Gospel message penetrated deep into the hearts of the people, and they gladly received the Savior into their hearts. God also confirmed His Word with signs, wonders, and miracles. As news of the wonderful works of God spread, the crowds continued to grow in size until the last night when a sea of humanity was present to hear the Gospel being preached with the power of the Holy Ghost.

Salvation through Jesus Christ is God's greatest gift to mankind, and through the preaching of the Gospel this gift is offered to sinners. When the Gospel is preached, the Holy Spirit works in the hearts of sinners. This brings them to conviction and causes them to draw closer to the Savior.

There is nothing in this world like the thrill of seeing people come to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Miracles, deliverance, and the infilling of the Holy Ghost are important and have their place, but the most wonderful work of God is the work of salvation. We saw multitudes of people receiving Jesus as Lord and Savior every night.

Go Ye into all the World and Preach the

By the end of the crusade we were rejoicing at the huge harvest of souls that was reaped for the Kingdom of God. In addition to this, two of our team members, Janie and Svetla, also had a very successful and well-attended children's crusade on the field in the afternoons, with many children receiving the Lord Jesus.

God did many wonderful and amazing miracles among the people during this week. I remember a 20 year old man born with a deformed and paralyzed arm and leg. He somehow managed to drag his body to the crusade, and I watched as he painfully inched his way to the front through the huge multitude that was pressing in from every side. That evening, God healed his paralyzed arm. He came back the next night, and the power of the Holy Ghost came upon him. I watched as his paralyzed leg suddenly began to shake and twist as if it had a life of its own. I had never seen anything like it in my life; before my very eyes his paralyzed leg went totally berserk, kicking around in every direction as if it wanted to detach itself from the rest of his body.

I saw his face contort with absolute terror as he desperately held on to his leg, lest it shake itself off his body. There was an evil spirit of infirmity coming out of his leg. Suddenly he was free. His leg became still, life rushed into it, and he was totally healed! He began to walk, run, jump, and weep. We brought him up to testify, but he was too overwhelmed by what the Lord had done in him, and all he could do was praise Jesus and weep.

The next evening, an old woman came running forward followed by her daughter and grandchildren. She climbed onto the platform and began to dance. It was difficult to get her to stop and tell us what the Lord had done for her. Her daughter explained that she had been paralyzed and bedridden for ten years as a result of a stroke. As she lay upon her bed, she was able to listen to the preaching that was carried by our PA system into her home nearly a mile away.

When I finished praying for the sick, Jesus touched her body. She jumped out of her bed and began to praise God. She started running to the crusade to tell us what the Lord had done for her. Her daughter and grandchildren, who were in wonder and amazement, ran after her to the crusade. This is the Jesus we serve!

That night, amongst many other things, two teenage siblings, a boy and a girl, born totally deaf and mute, were both healed. Their neighbor, a Pentecostal lady, had brought them with faith in her heart that Jesus would heal them. Can you imagine the scene of great joy, the shouting and the tears in that family when both children arrived home hearing and speaking!

On the last night, thousands of people received the baptism with the Holy Ghost and with Fire. Hundreds of people began to fall to the ground as the Holy Ghost flowed over the field like a river of fire. The glory and the presence of the Lord seemed to rest over the multitude of people who were weeping, worshipping God, shouting, and praying.

An African Pentecost is an amazing and wonderful thing to be a part of. During this time, many people in the crowd were also healed of a host of diseases and infirmities.

From left to right: This boy's right leg was totally paralyzed since birth, and now he runs! This brother & sister, each born deaf mute, are both healed! This formally crippled woman now dances for joy.

This woman was paralyzed and bedridden for ten years. She heard the gospel preached over our PA system, while she was lying in her home nearly one mile away. Jesus healed her, and she came running and dancing to the crusade to testify of what God had done!

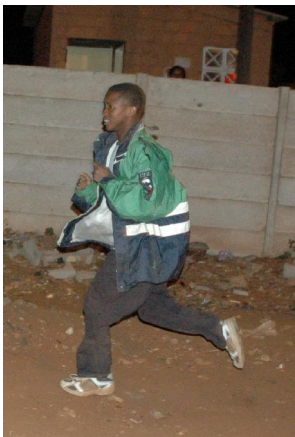

We then praised, glorified, and worshiped the Lord late into the night. All Glory to the Lord Jesus for all that He has done!

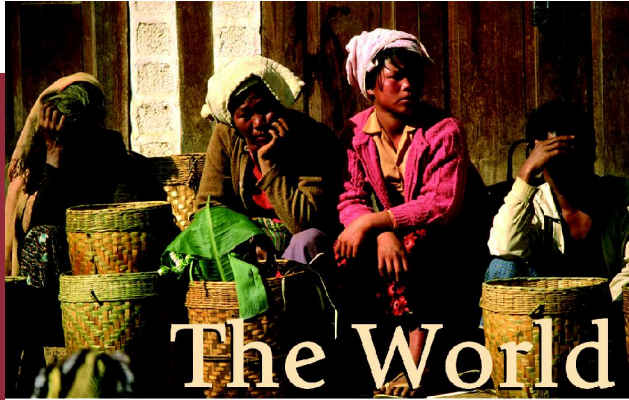

As you know, we have intensive months of ministry ahead, training pastors and holding crusades. As you read this, I am on the field in Asia and then on to Africa. Please uphold my family, our teams, and myself in prayer. Thank you for your faithful love, prayers, and financial support of this ministry.

In Christ Jesus,
