Breakthrough in Congo!

Dear friends,

Greetings in the name of Jesus!

In this newsletter I will be reporting on a recent crusade we had in Kenia, a township outside Lubumbshi, which is located in Congo's famed Katanga province. This crusade was a very expensive and major undertaking for us since Congo is and has always been a very troubled place.

Right now, armies of guerilla control large swathes of territory, and although fighting has ceased, this area of Congo is still considered a war zone. Since 1998 over 4 million people have been killed, and UN and EU troops are maintaining peace in most places.

In spite of the country's enormous wealth in natural resources, including diamonds and uranium, the people are poverty stricken. The country's wealth is controlled by an elite group of corrupt people. I saw the wives of these men showing off their mink coats and diamond rings larger than I have ever seen, while the poor on the streets are starving.

Government officials are incredibly corrupt, which made things very difficult for us. Permits are required for everything imaginable, and typically nothing happens until sizeable bribes are paid out to everyone around. Our no-bribery policy made it very tough for us. The local mayor even threatened to shut down the crusade just because we had not invited him to come and speak on the first night!

I began wearing my army field jacket complete with my badges of rank and jump-wings. As a result, word spread that I was both an army general and a pastor, which protected me from harassment.

Our team moved to Congo a month prior to the crusade to prepare with the local pastors and their congregations. After speaking at a conference in Sweden, I joined the team together with Pastor David Newberry, a veteran missionary to Africa now living in the United States.

Upon arriving in Congo, I learned that the government had impounded our truck and all of our equipment! After extensive negotiations between our team leader, Pastor Mavondo, and the officials, they finally released our things, and a day later than planned the crusade began.

The entire crusade was a great spiritual battle, but the Spirit of the Lord broke through the darkness! Multitudes of people gave their lives to the Lord Jesus and many were healed from various diseases and ailments.

The next day, Rob prayed and rebuked the devil and again threw the jewelry into a fire. This time it began to burn and proceeded to melt and disappear.

The crusade ended with a powerful move of the Spirit of God as the multitude was Baptized with the Holy Ghost and with Fire. It was a victorious ending to a tough battle. In the end, the Gospel of Jesus prevailed!

Out of Islam, which was recently published and released by Charisma House, tells the story of Christopher Alam's life. It chronicles his Islamic upbringing, how he found Jesus, his time in prison and escape to Europe, and his ministry. It also looks inside the world of Islam, something that is very much a part of our world today. This is a great book to give away to the unsaved, as well as offering encouragement to believers.

Ruashi Harvest!

Dear Friends,

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus!

Crusade Report

During the second week of July we held a crusade in the township of Ruashi, which is located just outside Lubumbashi, Congo. The crusade was well prepared by our Africa team, who worked alongside the local pastors and their churches.

Pastor Mavondo, our director of operations in Africa, was delayed in getting to Congo due to the extensive effort involved in getting our truck and equipment into the country. Our assistant team leader, Janey Menzies, did an outstanding job leading the team until he arrived.

Rob and Mary Grindley were also a great blessing to the team during this time. Rob and Mary are RHEMA graduates and veteran missionaries to Africa. After spending six years on the field, they returned to the United States for a season and recently decided to begin serving in Africa once again. We count it a privilege that they chose to work with Dynamis World Ministries as they reenter the mission field. They are both very good teachers and have been a great asset to us as they serve as part of our DWM Africa Team.

As I mentioned in the last newsletter, Congo is one of the darkest places that I have ever visited. I am glad to be able to say once again that the Spirit of the Lord broke through the darkness with great power, totally triumphing over the powers of the evil one in Ruashi!

Night after night, multitudes came to the open field to hear the gospel message. Each evening, they wholeheartedly responded to the altar calls for salvation and received Jesus as their Lord and Savior. As their hearts changed, they turned in items of witchcraft, occult charms, weapons, and stolen goods. Even the armed soldiers, who we hired to guard our equipment, received Jesus and brought items of witchcraft from their homes.

God confirmed His Word with countless, wonderful miracles. Long queues of people lined up by the platform to testify of what the Lord had done. Among the many deaf and mute who were wonderfully healed by our Lord, God touched a man born without ears, and he began to hear and speak for the first time in his life. What an amazing sight to behold!

We saw several children receive their sight. Some were blind while others had such poor eyesight that by American standards they were "legally blind." Many people testified that large tumors, some the size of oranges, had instantly disappeared from their bodies. There were many denly popped open. Soon thereafter, his paralysis and his pain disappeared. By the power of God, the effects of excessive alcohol were cleared from his system.

When he heard the altar call he wholeheartedly gave his life to the Lord Jesus. He who was loudly praising God in Swedish - she did not know Swedish, it was the Holy Ghost! It was an amazing and wonderful time. The entire place was on fire!

who were partially paralyzed, and others who were badly injured in traffic accidents who were all healed. The senior police chief was seriously injured in a traffic accident several years ago. He was deaf in one ear, parts of his body were paralyzed, and he had chronic pain. He heard the music from the crusade as he was drinking in a bar some distance away. Somehow he managed to make his way to the meeting.

As he listened to the Word of God, his deaf ear sud-Hallelujah! Our Lord Jesus is the same, yesterday, today, and forever!

On the last night, what the Lord did was astounding; the Holy Ghost fell with tremendous power, and the multitude was totally overcome by the presence of the Holy Ghost.

People began shaking and falling, and thousands of voices shouted praises to God in other tongues as they were baptized with the Holy Ghost and with Fire. There was one woman near the front of the crowd

Message

In 1983, the scripture Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever" became the motto of our ministry. I would like to share with you the story behind the verse.

I was ministering in a Roman Catholic Church in Poznan, Poland. The parish priest, Reverend Szymynski, and I were good friends, and I had a standing invitation to preach in his church at any time.

Large crowds of people came to these meetings expecting great things from God. Among them there were many communists and atheists who would come with great needs in their lives. For many of them this was the first visit to a church of this kind. My messages were about the crucified and resurrected Jesus. Upon hearing the Word, faith was released and the Lord would move in the hearts of the people. Nearly everyone present who had not already received Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior would open their hearts and receive Him.

After the message, I would pray for the sick and God would answer with His miracle working power. One particular evening, I asked the crowd how many of them needed a miracle from God. Almost everyone present stood up. A "healing line" formed which stretched around the entire sanctuary. I stood on the edge of the platform and asked the people to pass in front of me, and proceeded to lay my hands upon each person.

A woman in a wheelchair came through the line, and I asked her what was wrong with her. She explained that she had been totally paralyzed for the past 11 years. There was no sensation remaining in her legs or feet, and she felt nothing when she was touched or pinched.

"What would you like Jesus to do for you?" I asked, and she replied, "I want to be healed." I explained that God could heal her instantly or He could heal her slowly over a period of time. I then asked her, "What do you have faith for in your heart?" "I have faith for both!" she replied.

At that time, I realized that she had no faith at all. As I looked at her, I felt in my heart that I could not let her go – God wanted to do something for her. I did not fully understand it, but I sensed in my spirit that there was something God was doing here that I did not want to miss.

I stepped down from the platform and stood facing her. I laid my hands on her head and prayed for her in the mighty name of the Lord Jesus. After I prayed I said, "In the name of Jesus rise up and walk!" She tried very hard to stand. I saw that she truly made an effort to get up out of the wheelchair. But her legs were useless, and she could not do it.

Again, I laid my hands on her head and prayed. As I did I looked over her at the long line of people in the queue behind her. At that moment, I saw the wonderful face of our Lord Jesus in front of me. He was looking at me with His eyes full of love. Human words fail to describe the wonderful face of our Savior.

As I stood transfixed looking at Him, everything stood still, and I heard these words, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today and forever!" The words electrified my soul, and something powerful gripped my heart. I proclaimed to the crowd, "If our Lord Jesus is the same today and He is here in this place, it is impossible for this woman not to be healed. It is impossible for her to go home crippled!"

A Spirit of faith came over me and possessed me. Jesus was present, and I could not doubt or disbelieve. I was surrounded and enveloped by the presence of God. In His presence impossibilities cease to exist and all things are possible!

I asked a young priest and my interpreter to remove the woman from the wheelchair and to hold her up in front of me. As they did, her legs dangled lifelessly. Suddenly, scripture after scripture began to pour forth from my mouth.

I loudly proclaimed the Word of God as it flowed like a river out of my mouth, "Surely he hath borne our griefs and has carried our sorrows...he was wounded for our transgressions he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed...Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me bless his holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgives all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases." As I continued speaking the Word of God over the paralyzed woman, I found myself quoting scriptures that I had never memorized.

I saw the power of God begin to move upon her body. I saw life come into her lifeless legs, and they began to tremble and shake. I asked the priest and the interpreter to release her. At that moment, for the first time in eleven years, she was standing on her own.

Conclusion on back

She put her hands on my shoulders, and we slowly began to walk. I forgot about the rest of the crowd – I continued to quote scriptures and work with her for over 45 minutes, until she was walking perfectly, running, and praising God. That night she was totally healed.

As soon as she was completely healed, the Spirit of faith that had held me so strongly suddenly lifted. One moment I could not find doubt within me, and the next moment my mind could not conceive the immensity of the wonderful miracle the Lord had just done.

All Glory and praise to our Lord Jesus! He makes the impossible possible. In God's goodness He goes above and beyond the faith of man. His Grace far overshadows our faith.

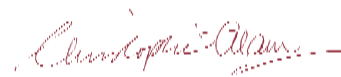

Let us be thankful that He does not simply meter unto us according to our paltry faith, but He goes above and beyond all that we can ask or imagine, according to His Grace, which is far greater than our faith could ever be – "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen." Ephesians 3:20-21

Thank you for your faithful financial support and prayers. It has been a wonderful year for us thus far, and we trust God that the remaining crusades will also be very fruitful. Therefore, let us stay in faith, walk in love, and continue to sow precious seed into the fertile soil of the Gospel. Thank you for partnering together with us in this glorious Gospel!
